

Your Character's Voice!

Creative Writing Workshop

Develop and hone effective dialogue techniques in fiction and memoir. From reviewing the technical basics to exploring the subtle qualities of choosing the right words to put in your character's mouth and on the page, this is a full-day immersion in spoken words in narrative. Come prepared to write and share opportunities for feedback.

10 AM - 4 PM
SATURDAY
OCTOBER 26

CENTRAL LIBRARY

251 Dundas St.
Stevenson and Hunt A

$20

Visit londonpubliclibrary.ca
to register or call 519-661-4600

RUTH E. WALKER is a popular creative writing instructor through Writescape and has award-winning fiction, poetry and non-fiction work in Canadian, U.S. and U.K. anthologies and journals. She is the author of the novel Living Underground and co-author of Inspiration Station, a creative resource book. Ruth enjoys working with writers at all levels. <http://ruthewalker.ca>

